Here are just some of the benefits of creating a log in for that website:

- Have access to thousands of relevant resources and information to assist you in your business.
- Be able to access the numerous benefits of membership and receive member discount pricing.
- See courses you have taken with GPBOR
- Register for classes with the REALTOR® Professional Development Center, including the mandatory REALTOR® Code of Ethics
- View and edit your member profile that populates realtor.com

Want to see if you have ever created a log in for www.nar.realtor? A log in consists of a User Name and Password, which you should keep in a secure location for future reference.

1. Look up your www.nar.realtor Username or Password here:
<https://www.nar.realtor/user/login?destination=#!/lookup>
You can also look up your NRDS Number (National REALTOR® Database System). This is your unique identification number with NAR, your local Board and the State Association).
2. Once ready, login here: <https://www.nar.realtor/user/login?current=node/171563#!/>

* Hint: If you get a message that no User Name exists in the system for you, you will have to create a new registration in the system with your NRDS number. Please be patient and save all information in a safe place for future reference.
